

Scribbled Lives 2017 MEMBERSHIP – An online Calligraphic Art Group

Enrollment period: 12/5/16 – 1/5/17

A few simple goals:

*The group will provide an incentive to create calligraphic artwork regularly and post to share with Scribbled Lives Members on the private Facebook page.

(Scribbled Lives 2017)

*Seeing the work of others will keep us inspired.

*Members will be a support network for our creativity in a world that often conspires to keep us from taking time for our own work.

This is the basic framework

*We will begin the first week of January and continue through 2017 to the second week of December.

*Members volunteer to create prompts during the year. There is a Sign-Up page in the Files section of the private Scribbled Lives Facebook page and you can sign yourself up for the times that are convenient.

*Journal choice and size is up to each person to choose and loose sheets are fine.

*You post your calligraphic artwork on the private Facebook Page and include a brief explanation of what you did.

*Share your work at least once a month. This is an active group of art makers.

Participation is essential.

I am happy to keep this group going for the year 2017. Being the gatekeeper can be needlessly time-consuming so let's monitor ourselves for participation. That way, I don't have to police the group. If you get busy and don't have time to do the artwork, simply remove yourself from the group. We all know that things happen and plans change.

*Members respond in a supportive way.

To join Scribbled Lives 2017, you'll need an active Facebook page, we need to be "friends" on Facebook, and let me know you'd like to be a Scribbled Lives Member by email: abcdubosch@frontier.com

REMINDER

This is a secret group. Because the work posted here is meant to stay here and there is no share button. The idea is to create a supportive space where we can come to see lots of work, where we can get constructive and nurturing feedback and where we feel safe posting. If you want to also post your own work elsewhere that is wonderful but no other member of this group will share your work without written permission
